

• Shirley Booth

Gender: Female

Country/region: London, England

Current position: Lector of Culinary School in London 「The Asian and Oriental School of Catering」 , Lector of some Japanese culinary schools, and writer and film director.

Achievements:

She first visited Japan in 1977, and lived in Japan for five years.

As a great scholar of Japanese cuisines, she has introduced Japanese cuisines first to the EU and the USA and then to other parts of the world through producing television documentaries and publishing books. There is the book “Food of Japan” and the film “ Japan Food For The Spirit” as prize-winning works.