

#2) Strengthening Macadamia Nuts Export Value Chain in Rwanda through Organic Certification

Support farmers and private companies to build sustainable export supply chains and improve product quality and productivity in organic farming

■ Outline of the Project

- Objective: Strengthening the export value chain for Rwandan macadamia nuts through capacity building to promote organic cert. such as 'JAS' Organic
- Target areas: 23 areas in Rwanda
- Activities:
 - 1) Training macadamia nuts farmers for organic farming method
 - 2) Support for farmers in acquisition of organic certifications
 - 3) Improving quality and productivity of macadamia nuts etc.
- Farmers# involved: 500
- Expected outcome: Improving farmers' skills / improving quality and productivity of products / organic certification ensuring procurement of macadamia nuts in a stable and sustainable manner
- Period: 2 years(2026-2027)
- Budget: $547,537

■ Project sites

■ Setups

Training the trainers
Supporting organic certification acquisition
Building relationships with farmers

(Photos: Rwanda Nut Company Ltd.)

Harvesting macadamia nuts

Conditioning trees