

Building sustainable “healthy diets” and “food systems” –Aiming to improve nutritional literacy that leads to behavior change–
12.7 Tue
13:30–15:00	Session 1	Trends in transformation into sustainable food systems after the United Nations Food Systems Summit Summary of the United Nations Food Systems Summit and the ideal food systems that Japan is aiming for based on the “MeaDRI” •Facilitator: Makoto Osawa (Former Vice–Minister for International Affairs of MAFF & UN FSS Convenor of Japan & Executive Advisor of Norinchukin Bank)
15:30–17:00	Session 2	Aiming for a sustainable solution to food and nutrition issues “Think food locally, connect wisdom globally” •Facilitator: Takao Toda (Former Senior Special Advisor of JICA)
17:30–19:00	Session 3	Countermeasures and Support for the Double Burden of Malnutrition Roundtable discussion with the global community •Facilitator: Steve Godfrey (Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition)
12.8 Wed
8:30–10:00	Session 4	Promoting Shokuiku for “No One Left Behind” Population approach to improve dietary behavior •Facilitator: Yukari Takemi (Professor of Graduate School Kagawa Nutrition University)
10:30–12:00	Session 5	Japan’s knowledge and recommendations to solve nutritional issues Approaches to food culture and eating habits and corporate contributions toward the realization of “nutrition improvement according to individual circumstances” •Facilitator: Yoichiro Sato (First chair person of Society of Japanese Food Studies & Professor of Kyoto Prefectural University)
13:30–15:00	Session 6	Necessity of building a social system to solve nutritional issues A new social system for better nutrition realized through innovation, taking “Japan’s Experiences” into the future. •Facilitator: Ryuji Yamaguchi (Executive Director of NJPPP)
15:30–17:00	Session 7	Message from the Japanese food industry to the world To achieve both better nutrition and sustainable development, companies that have made their N4G commitments will give presentations on their actions. •Facilitator: Yutaka Arai (Vice–Minister for International Affairs of MAFF)