High-grade Wagyu. Beef brands bred in specific regions of Japan.

Included under the category of Wagyu are beef brands that are extremely popular that have been bred using improved feeding methods and feed individually developed in specific regions throughout Japan. A large majority of these beef brands are given the name of the production area such as Matsuzaka Beef, Yonezawa Beef and Maesawa Beef.

Grading system to clearly identify meat yield and quality

To ensure fair trading, beef in Japan is currently graded by the Japan Meat Grading Association. Beef is graded based on the yield grade and meat quality. The yield grade refers to the ratio of meat to total weight of the carcass and is classified into three grades from A to C with A being a grade of higher yield. Meat quality is classified into five grades from 5 to 1 based on beef marbling, color and brightness of the meat, firmness and texture of the meat and color and brightness of the fat. The lowest of the four individual grades is the final grade allocated to the meat. A thorough grading system of 15 grades through a combination of the above two elements ensures a clear indication of Wagyu meat quality and yield grade.
