

3-1. Legal Framework / Relevant Laws

Relevant Organizations and Their Roles

Organization	Role	Description
Ministry of Environment	Policy Coordination for ASF Control	Formulation of comprehensive countermeasures for ASF, budget planning and allocation, media response
NIWDC (National Institute of Wildlife Disease Control and Prevention)	General Management of ASF Response	ASF diagnosis, Management of ASF response operations(capture and carcass search), Environmental surveillance, Field epidemiological investigations, Environmental surveillance, Job training for responsible public officials
Regional Environmental Office	Regional Management of ASF Response	Management of ASF search personnel by city and county, Payment of bounties for captured or discovered wild boars, Monitoring of fraudulent activities
NIBR (National Institute of Biological Resources)	Ecological Research	Survey on Wild Boar Habitat Density
Wildlife Management Association	Project Implementation/Institutional Support	Support for capture activities(thermal drones, trapping devices), Operation of carcass detection dogs, Training for hunters and monitoring of fraudulent activities
KNPS (Korea National Park Service)	Management of Conservation Areas	ASF Response and Research within National Park Areas
KECI (Korea Environment Conservation Institute)	Management of Fences	Installation and maintenance of regional fencing systems
Metropolitan Government (Regional Local Gov.)	Management of Local Governments	Consolidation of Local Government’s Performance Data
Municipal Government (Basic Local Gov.)	Frontline Agencies for ASF Response	Management of hunters(capture permit issuance), Collection of ASF samples and submission for testing, Storage and disposal of carcasses, Management of burial sites for ASF positive cases
The public	Report upon discovery of a wild boar carcass	“The most powerful surveillance system is a vigilant citizen”